Winners for Life is a book co-written in 1996 by Donny Anderson. The book teaches troubled teens the importance of setting goals and how to achieve their dreams. The success of the book turned into a charity foundation in 2001. Winners for Life Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that provides college scholarships to at-need youth throughout the United States who are making a difference in their own lives but may lack financial and emotional support. Donny Anderson was the number one draft pick of both the NFL and AFL in 1965. Anderson played six seasons for the Green Bay Packers, three seasons under the legendary Coach Vince Lombardi, claiming both Super Bowl I and II Championships and Pro-Bowl Performer. Anderson was inducted into the Collegiate Sports Hall of Fame and the Green Bay Packer Hall of Fame, an All-American two years at Texas Tech University, Collegiate Co-Player of the year in 1965 and a Heisman Trophy Finalist.

The Winners for Life Foundation 13th Annual Sports Gala will be held on April 14th, 2016 at the Frontier of Flight Museum. The event begins at 6 p.m. and ends at 10 p.m. and will consist of a silent and live auction, and food donated by area restaurants. Patrons purchase tables that seat 10 people for $500. Expected total attendance is around 400 people.
